Set on the sands of Playa la Troya, the Monkey Beach Club overlooks the Atlantic ocean and is one of the coolest places in the island where our delegates will be able to enjoy the music, food, drinks, hospitality and the spectacular sunset at this amazing venue.

Lagarto Restaurant

Finca Altos de Trevejos

The Annual Meeting will come to an end at the highest village in Spain, Vilaflor (1300m above sea level). ETA delegates will visit a traditional Canarian finca and wine cellar where they produce the renowned local mountain and volcanic wines.

Our delegates will enjoy a traditional Canarian meal surrounded by vineyards, with spectacular views on the sea and La Gomera island. And of course, they will taste the best local wines produced in the finca.
